Stansbury the Place to be by the Sea

STANSBURY PROGRESS ASSOCIATION INCORPORATED

Spring has arrived in Stansbury, bringing with it warmer weather, increased visitor numbers, and plenty of activity across the township. The October Long Weekend and school holiday period saw the town come alive, with accommodation fully booked and visitors enjoying everything our community has to offer. The opening of the Stansbury Seaside Market season and the Sounds by the Sea Music Festival created a vibrant atmosphere, and it was wonderful to see so many people out and about supporting local businesses and events. With the festive season and summer holidays just around the corner, we look forward to welcoming even more visitors to our beautiful coastal town.

During the recent school holidays, two community events were held with excellent participation and positive feedback. On Thursday 1st October, a remote-control boat session took place near the old boat ramp, proving to be a great success, with children thoroughly enjoying the opportunity to get involved. The second event, Sip, Shuck, Sprinkle and Shimmy, was held at the Caravan Park and featured gin tastings and cocktails, oyster shucking demonstrations, cookie decorating, and vinyl music. Both events were well received, and plans are already underway to offer similar activities during the January holiday period. Stay tuned for further details.

Stansbury Seaside Markets

The Stansbury Seaside Market held over the October Long Weekend was another outstanding success. A total of 76 stallholders attended, occupying 116 sites, making this one of our biggest markets. The market once again delivered a great community vibe and highlighted why it continues to be one of the region's most popular events. Rob Tonkin provided the musical entertainment while also raising funds for his chosen charity. This month, proceeds supported the Prostate Cancer Support Network, Southern Yorke Peninsula.

Looking ahead, the next market on 28th November will be the annual Pre-Christmas Market, which is already shaping up to be another popular event, with strong stallholder registrations received to date. To further enhance the visitor experience and encourage visitation during a non-holiday period, a Pre-Loved Market will also be held at the Stanbury Institute from 9am to 12pm, alongside the Seaside Market. If you are interested in participating in the Pre-Loved Market, please get in touch with the Visitor Information Centre on 08 88524577 or email information@stansburysa.com.au.

Planning is also underway for the highly anticipated New Year's Eve Twilight Market. We are also excited to confirm that popular entertainer Nathan “Whippy” Griggs will be attending this year's New Year's Eve Market, providing another great attraction for visitors and families.

A sincere thank you to all the volunteers who help make our markets a success. Without your support, it would be difficult to deliver events of this scale and quality. As we head into a busy season of events, we are looking for additional volunteers to assist at upcoming markets. Volunteer support plays a vital role in ensuring each event runs smoothly and is enjoyed by both stallholders and visitors alike. Whether you can spare an hour or lend a hand for the entire day, your assistance would be greatly appreciated. If you are available, or know someone who may be interested in volunteering, please contact Hannah at the Visitor Information Centre.

Visitor Information Centre
The Visitor Information Centre is now open on Saturdays and Sundays from 9.30am to 12.30pm, through to the end of April 2027. These additional opening hours are only possible thanks to the dedication and generosity of our volunteers, who generously give their time to welcome visitors and support our community. If you are interested in volunteering, or know someone who may be willing to help, we would love to hear from you. Please get in touch with the Visitor Information Centre to find out more about becoming part of our volunteer team.

The Visitor Centre has recently received a range of new merchandise, including kids' fun shirts, polo shirts, T-shirts, postcards, and magnets. Pop on in to have a look!

Over the school holidays we ran the explorers challenge and received some great feedback. Congratulation to Melissa McKenzie and Justine Cooper on being the winners of the challenge and awarded a gift voucher to a local business.

Remembrance Day Service
A short Remembrance Day Service will be held at the Foreshore Memorial on Anzac Parade on 11 November at 10.45am. Community members are warmly invited to attend, and floral tributes will be gratefully received.

Can you spare an hour or so to help Meals on Wheels in Stansbury?

The committee has a vacancy. A Treasurer is needed but there is no handling of money! The role involves reporting once a fortnight to Head Office, (with paperwork taking 15 minutes or so), reporting at the end of each month to Head Office, (paperwork taking 30 minutes or so).
There is AGM once a year and maybe one or two other meetings, not regular.
If interested, please ring Jan on 0458524507.

STANSBURY MUSEUM

Rowena Smith

With Remembrance Day fast approaching, I thought it appropriate to mention some of the Stansbury Museum's items relating to World War 1 and other wars. In the reading room at the Museum there are displays relating to how the community of Stansbury supported and commemorated those who served from the local area as well as artifacts from that time. There are many books, some which are specifically Yorke Peninsula related like "Pens and Bayonets - Letters from the Front by soldiers of the Yorke Peninsula" and "The Ties That Bind :Southern Yorke Peninsula and the Great War,1914-1919". Some also feature other wars like Vietnam. One called "My Vietnam" features photographs taken by Australian Veterans of the Vietnam conflict.

An unusual item in the display cabinet is the Death Penny (Dead Man's Penny) which was given to the next of kin of British and Imperial Forces who had died in World War 1. It is a bronze memorial plaque in the shape of a penny but larger. There is also a trenching shovel used for digging foxholes and trenches during World War 1 – the original wooden handle didn't survive the years, so for display purposes a newer one has been added. We suspect this useful tool was used in a home veggie patch on the soldier's return to Yorke Peninsula.

An interesting minute book was recently found amongst some Stansbury Institute minute books. It is the minute book of the Dalrymple Repatriation Committee. When I've had a chance to read right through it and it has been archived, I'll share more about the way our wonderful community looked after returning World War 1 servicemen and honoured their service to their country and the British Empire. A later committee replicated this following World War 2.

One of the display boards shows photos of both the Dalrymple District Roll of Honor 1914-1919 and the Stansbury Dalrymple District WW 1 Pictorial Roll of Honour. Both are located in the Stansbury Institute – Dalrymple Soldiers Memorial Hall. The pictorial roll of honour was a popular style of honour roll made in the 1920's combining the names and photographs of military personnel in uniform. Soldiers from Stansbury Dalrymple served in different areas of the army - in infantry, machine gun and light horse battalions.

I found the following mention of the Dalrymple Honor Roll in the Advertiser on 15th September 1917, a year before World War 1 ended. Interestingly, the spelling Honor (American influence) was used rather than the more commonly used British/Australian version, Honour. This was on the board itself and in the article following.

"On Tuesday evening the Stansbury branch of the Cheer- Up Society met to make arrangements for the unveiling of the roll of honor on October 31st. Mrs Charles Horne will unveil it. She has sent three sons to the front, two of whom have made the supreme sacrifice. The roll of honor is a splendid piece of work and contains nearly 60 names, amongst which are those of eight who have made the supreme sacrifice".

The Cheer –Up Society was a South Australian patriotic organisation founded during World War 1. Volunteers provided creature comforts for soldiers, both sending parcels containing non-perishable food and items like warm socks. Probably their most well-known endeavour was the Cheer -Up Hut behind the Adelaide railway station. Here volunteers provided meals, entertainment and distributed donated food and clothing. They also organised special "Farewell" and "Welcome Home" gatherings. No doubt, whilst in transit, servicemen from our local area used the facilities at the Cheer-Up Hut.

By the end of hostilities, a year later, the number of servicemen from the Stansbury Dalrymple area had increased. The Foreshore War Memorial lists 86 servicemen from and 23 who made the supreme sacrifice. An impressive number of mostly young men, from a small rural area signed up to the war effort and fought in lands far from their own homeland.

Remembrance Day is held on the anniversary of the Armistice of 1918 that ended fighting in World War 1. It has been observed on the 11th of November across the Commonwealth since 1919 and is an officially recognised day in Australia. It is a time to honour and remember everyone who died or suffered in the service of Australia while serving in wars, conflicts and peace keeping operations.

The Stansbury sub branch of the RSL is holding its Remembrance Day Service at the Foreshore War Memorial on November 11th at 10.45am.

Come to the Museum later that day (open 2pm-4pm) to reflect on those locals who served!

STANSBURY COMMUNITY CRAFT & FRIENDSHIP

October has been an 'angelic' month for us at Craft.
We shared a lovely morning with the school children making angels for our wreaths and swags, using denim and lace. These will appear around town as Christmas draws nearer.

Last year our wreaths were well received, and many wanted to purchase them. Well here's your chance. On Market Day, 28th Nov, we will hold a little stall under the veranda at the front of the Community Church, with last year's wreaths, some angel wreaths/swags, and a few other Christmassy things. The funds we raise from this will go towards the little girl we sponsor through Compassion, Angel Mae in the Philippines.

We will be visiting Melaleuca Court with 'Quilts and bags' as this Scribble goes to print. Then Marion is teaching crocheted Christmas trees on Nov 4th, as we roll into Christmas.

Feel free to join us at the Community Church, 9.30 -11.30 Wednesday Nov 4th and 18th
Cuppas at 10.30.
