October is here and tourist season 2026/2027 is declared open! The Long Weekend will kick off with a monster Stansbury Seaside Market on Saturday 3rd October with over 80 stalls lined up to tempt your shopping impulses. With many new stall holders joining our popular regulars, there will be something for all ages and preferences. The markets are held along the Stansbury Foreshore between 9am and 1pm.

The Stansbury Seaside Markets play an important role in our summer season offerings and obviously require an enormous effort behind the scenes. If you can spare a couple of hours to contribute with either set up, pack down or manning our entry points, please contact Hannah, tourism@stansburysa.com.au or ph: 8852 4577.

The biennial event “Sounds By The Sea”, a music event organized by Stansbury Sports and Community Club, is also happening on 3rd October. This will kick off at 1pm and continue throughout the day and evening with various music acts and performances at the Stansbury Oval. Don’t miss out on this fantastic family friendly event with entertainment for all ages, food trucks and great company. Tickets are $15 per adult if purchased in advance and $20 at the gate, while under 18’s are free. Please visit: https://www.trybooking.com/dlket to book your ticket.

Congratulations to Stansbury Caravan Park who brought home the honour and the trophy for the highest ranking park in South Australia at the latest SA Parks Conference. What an amazing recognition to the dedicated staff and managers who work passionately to make Stansbury a preferred destination for travellers.

As the weather is warming up and more people visit our town, the Visitor Information Centre will extend the opening hours to include Saturdays and Sundays 9.30am-12.30pm. On weekends, the centre will be manned by our amazing volunteers who are very knowledgeable and keen to offer their suggestions on what to do when visiting Stansbury and the surrounding area. We are always looking for volunteers and if you can spare a few hours once a month and love talking to people, please get in touch with our friendly staff.

Contributions for The Scribble to be sent by the 25th of the month for publishing in the next edition

STANSBURY COMMUNITY CRAFT & FRIENDSHIP

As alluded to in the last Scribble, we have been working with denim lately, following the suggestion from one of our 'bright sparks' that we could embroider squares and make a quilt. The resulting quilt was unveiled on the 16 Sept, and we're really pleased with it. Our fabulous quilters finished it off, and it's hanging in the church until Oct 28th when we take it to Melaleuca.
We also unveiled a lovely Christmas rug made from 6" squares we had crocheted. A warm crocheted rug isn't something we really need in December ….. but this will also make it's way to Melaleuca.
October 7th is scheduled for preparation for our annual crafty pre-Christmas visit from the Stansbury Primary School on Oct 21st. Once again, denim will be evident in our crafts! Fun, fun, fun!
Our usual crafts continue as we chat'n'do. A nice quantity of t-shirts, hats, and toys have been given to the Sunday School for their Samaritan's Purse Christmas boxes. Last year they sent 30 boxes. Well done SS!
Anyone who wants company, a cuppa, and a chat are welcome to join us.

IN-BETWEENS / TAI CHI GROUP

A group of 50 people attended our Aged Care information talk on 17th September at the Stansbury Institute Supper Room.

Donna Hickman and Rachelle Wallace from Home and Community Support gave a very interesting and informative talk about the changes to My Aged Care.

A question and answer session also provided many people with good information.

Afterwards, 30 people enjoyed lunch at the Blue Lime Cafe.

Our next planned event is our Christmas Dinner on Thursday 26th November. More information will appear in next month's Scribble.

Enquiries or further information contact: Carrol 0409 094 009.

CHI KUNG (QI GONG)

Chi Kung is a gentle form of energy practice. It is a beautiful flowing combination of movements and breathing techniques that stimulate energy flow and help promote your natural resiliency to stress and illness.

Chi Kung is held in the Institute supper room, entry via the side nearest the Post Office Monday mornings, except public holidays. Registration at 10.45am and gentle Qigong exercises commence at 11am. All welcome, wear loose, comfy clothes. Cost is $3.00.

Please note that we are not a professional organization, rather a “Young at Heart” group encouraging others to participate in gentle exercise.

EVERYONE WELCOME

LIONS CLUB OF STANSBURY DALRYMPLE.

Coffee Time!

October is a time to celebrate with a coffee (or maybe a tea)
It begins on the 1st October with International Coffee Day and Lions have designated the whole month as Mental Health Awarene
This follows the widely recognised R U OK day in September.

To help raise awareness on mental health and wellness in our community, the Lions Club of Stansbury Dalrymple is asking you to buy a coffee (or tea) from one of our local businesses. For every cup purchased, the club will donate to the Australian Lions Wellbeing Foundation which promotes and educates schools and communities to be happier, healthier and safer.

Thank you to the Blue Lime Café, Stansbury Butcher and Deli, and Stansbury IGA for your participation in this project.

On Thursday October 8th, buy a coffee (or tea), and be reminded that mental health is important and education and support are vital factors for our general well-being. Lions members will be around for a while in the morning, so stop and have a chat and have a good day.

AN EXCITING NEW CHAPTER FOR STANSBURY POST OFFICE

We are thrilled to announce that we, Colleen and Julian Burke, are the proud new owners of the Stansbury Post Office!

This is an incredibly exciting time for us, and we feel very fortunate to have the opportunity to take on this much-loved local business and become an even bigger part of the Stansbury community.

I have been completely overwhelmed by the incredibly positive response to our purchasing the Post Office. I am wholeheartedly grateful for the support, encouragement and warm welcome Julian and I have received from the Stansbury community. It truly means more to us than words can express.

The Post Office is more than just a place to send and collect mail — it is a place where locals connect, catch up and see familiar faces. I have really enjoyed meeting and getting to know the wonderful people of Stansbury over the past two years, and I genuinely look forward to going to "work" each day and having the opportunity to serve this amazing community.

We are committed to continuing the wonderful community spirit of the Post Office and providing friendly, reliable service to everyone who walks through our doors.

We would like to thank everyone who has supported the Stansbury Post Office over the years. We are incredibly proud to call Stansbury Post Office ours and can't wait to see what the future brings!

Thank you, Stansbury, for welcoming us so warmly. We look forward to serving you for many years to come.

Colleen & Julian Burke

STANSBURY MUSEUM

Rowena Smith

A chance discovery of some women's magazines, mainly dating from the 1970's prompted me to get a couple of modern women's magazines to compare current editions to those of 50 years ago and find out what has changed and what is the same.

The oldest magazine was an English magazine published in London in December, 1963 called Woman and was described as "the World's Greatest Weekly for Women". It was obviously widely distributed throughout the Commonwealth of Nations and beyond as above its masthead it states prices for Australia, New Zealand, Rhodesia (now known as Zimbabwe (south) and Zambia (north)), West Africa, East Africa, South Africa, U.S.A, France and Italy. I had to smile when the first full page ad depicted "the perfect gift for her" …a gleaming, steam dry iron (not sure that would pass the pub test amongst today's women). I'm pleased to say they did redeem themselves further into the magazine with Cussons gift sets for both sexes –soap, talcum powder and bath salts for the ladies and Imperial leather soap, brilliantine (hair oil) and aftershave for the men. There were articles particularly relating to English Christmases, illustrated with snow scenes and traditional hot Christmas dinner recipes – which no doubt resonated with European readers and homesick ex pats in Africa, Australia and New Zealand. There were fashion pages (chic plain coloured suits, patterned blouses teamed with pillbox hats, gloves, stiletto heels and handbags as big as a laptop bag stylishly hooked over the arm) and beauty articles (powder blue and gold eye shadow). I was interested that there was a vertical half page ad for K.Y brand tinned fruit "Australia's choicest fruits –peaches, pears and apricots, soaked in the warm sunshine of Australia. Ready to serve at a moment's notice! " Women were also encouraged to "put sunshine on your table with tempting ready to serve Japanese mandarin oranges. Buy a tin today!

A magazine, 14 years later in 1977, was published in Sydney for Australian women. It was more diverse than the earlier magazine including an article debating the merits of Australia purchasing a famous Cubist painting of a nude by Georges Braque for the National Gallery in Canberra for a price of $1.3 million dollars and a showbiz article on Renee Geyer headed by her quote "I sing good Black because I am Jewish". Cooking, dressmaking, fashion and beauty continued to be featured. The advertising was also more diverse. It still had ads related to home wares (vacuums, carpets, dinner sets, pottery, sewing machines), beauty products (more bath cubes, hair care, night cream) and fashion (active lifestyle wear for dancing, exercising swimming, undergarments, nighties, "Big Girl" pantyhose) but interspersed with ads for cars, cigarettes, alcohol, weight loss products, travel, exercise equipment and baby seats.

Some similarities between current women's magazines and those of 50 years ago are articles on royal families, famous people, book reviews, home hints, cookery, entertainment, babies, horoscopes, fashion, health and beauty. The 1977 magazine had an article titled "Peak Nutrition, Value for Money" whilst the 2026 was titled "Spend Less, Eat Better" - basically saying the same thing almost 50 years apart.

Differences were the older magazines promoted alcohol in enticing ads whilst a later one had an article on "Sobering Up" and there is now no advertising of cigarettes. Current magazines are all colour, in the 1970's there is a mix of colour and black and white. In the older magazines, there are ads for some items that are no longer relevant for the average person –for example, film for cameras, encyclopaedias and records. In the 1970's magazines were all hard copies. They were usually sold by newsagents and sometimes home delivered weekly. Today magazines are available in hard copy or digital subscription. They may be published either weekly or monthly. The physical size of each magazine is now smaller with fewer pages and interestingly the two major magazines that I compared both have slightly larger font these days. The purchase price has also changed over the years. In 1934 tuppence, in 1963 one shilling, in 1973 20cents, in 1976 40cents, in 1978 50cents and now the weekly magazine is $6.20, and the monthly magazine is $9.20. As you can see, historical changes in society can be seen in the changes in the magazines. These magazines are available at the museum in the reading room. Please ask if you would like to browse through them as they are not on display, due to limited space.

Our market stall will be selling delicious BBQ food at the Stansbury Seaside Market on the October long weekend – the only change to this year's offerings is that we will no longer be selling drinks.

Come along and support the museum!

Help us continue to preserve your history and the history of our beautiful town!
